

On The Rise

Wyandanch Homes and Property
Development Corporation

On The Rise is made possible by
Bank of America, Neighborhood Builders

Solar & Advanced Manufacturing have been identified as growing industries on Long Island. On The Rise will assist low-income individuals interested in these trade programs with career counseling and application enrollment assistance.

This program is open to low-income individuals in Suffolk County with priority given to individuals living or working in Wyandanch, NY.

Virtual information session to discuss programs will be available!

Career Courses Include:

Solar Energy

Welding & Soldering

Electronic Assembly

Advanced Manufacturing

and many more!

*Class sessions vary and subject*
to availability

Training opportunities available through

United Way of Long Island

Suffolk County Community College
Continuing Education

Opportunities Long Island

On The Rise will provide limited financial assistance to qualified participants. This aid will assist with childcare, transportation, or tuition.

Participants must provide signed/stamped attendance records from educational institution to receive financial reimbursement.

Enrollment available at WWW.WHPDC.COM
beginning October 2 - October 27